ANOTHER MAN IN OGDEN

pecial to The Tribune. OGDEN. May 16.-Charles Blair was eld up by a masked highwayman at 2 clock this morning near the corner of Seventh street and Washington avenue and robbed of $2.70, a pocket-knife and two rings. The hold-up, a big fellow, pushed a gun in Blair's face and demanded his valuables. No accurate description of the fellow is obtainable.

Gov. John Sparks of Nevada was in Ogden today.

H. W. Dunn of St Louis is in the city.

H. F. McCourt was arrested this morning as he stepped from the incoming Ric Grande Western train, by Policemen Pincock, Sleeth, Hadlock and Tout. He is wanted in Colorado Springs for stealing a saddle and riding outfit. He had the saddle in his possession when arrested,

P. C. Kittle is in town from Promontory.

M. J. Hogan is in town from Pocatello. Senator Reed Smoot was in the city a few hours today

A horse attached to a delivery wagon belonging to Smith Bros, uphoisterers, ran away on Washington avenue today, but no damage was done.

John Lewis died at his residence, 315-Pacific avenue, Sunday night, of tumor, Mrs. Jennie E. Nelson left today for an extended trip east. S. J. Kelley, manager of the Shamrock Athletic club, was in Ogden today.

S. O. Burguin is to be examined as to his s. O. Burguin is to be examined as to his sanity. He went to the Ogden State bank and drew a check for $200, payable to George Washington. The bank notified the police, and Sergt. Chamberg arrested the man. He imagines that he is interested in every bank of Utah.

Frank Farrell, a demented soldier from the Philippines, jumped from a Southern Pacific train at Corinne, Utah, today, and walked into Ogden. Farrell was mustered out of the service about two months ago and was on his way home. He got on a big spree at San Francisco and his comrades were compened to keep a strict watch on him. In spite of their vigilance he escaped and jumped from the train. When he reached Ogden he was picked up by Officer Felker and will be held until he recovers.

The Board of County Commissioners held an unimportant session today. The chairmen of the various county committees were instructed to submit names for appointment as registry agents.

Mr. Wilson reported that the steam roller had been demanded by Ogden City and would be returned Tuesday; also, that he had visited the Birch Creek road and found it badly damaged by the breaking of the Sears reservoir, but that the work of repair was already in progress.

Councilman Chambers has taken pity on the weak and tired hobo who seeks his night's rest in Lester and Liberty parks. Also he has a big place in his heart for the lads and lassless who like to spend a pleasant evening in these retreats, and he manifested the same by suggesting to the City Council tonight that they furnish cots in place of benches. A suggestion had been made that more benches were needed in the parks, and Mr. Chambers wanted these benches upholstered. The matter went to the Public Buildings and Grounds committee.

Thomas H Carris Mayor of Ogden City. Tonight Mayor Glasmann sent in a communication which said that he had gone East, to be absent about a month, and, upon motion of Councilman Paine, Presi-
